

John Scurlock and Steph Abegg

Snow and Spire: Flights in the Canadian Rockies

Burlington Public Library

Feb. 7th 2012, 7pm

Hosted by the
Skagit Alpine Club

Two noted northwest mountain photographers, Steph Abegg and John Scurlock, will collaborate on a special presentation at the Burlington Public Library for the February 7th meeting of the Skagit Alpine Club.

- Slideshow on their joint six-day aerial photography adventure in September, 2011, amongst the massive and rugged Canadian Rockies. Highlights include Mt. Robson, Kakwa Provincial Park, Jasper National Park, Columbia Icefield, Valhallas, Bugaboos, Mt. Assiniboine, and more.
- Discussion on the making of John's new book, Snow & Spire: Flights to Winter in the North Cascade Range.
- Copies of the book will be available for purchase, with proceeds going to benefit the Skagit Alpine Club.

Please join us for what is sure to be an amazing show!!
